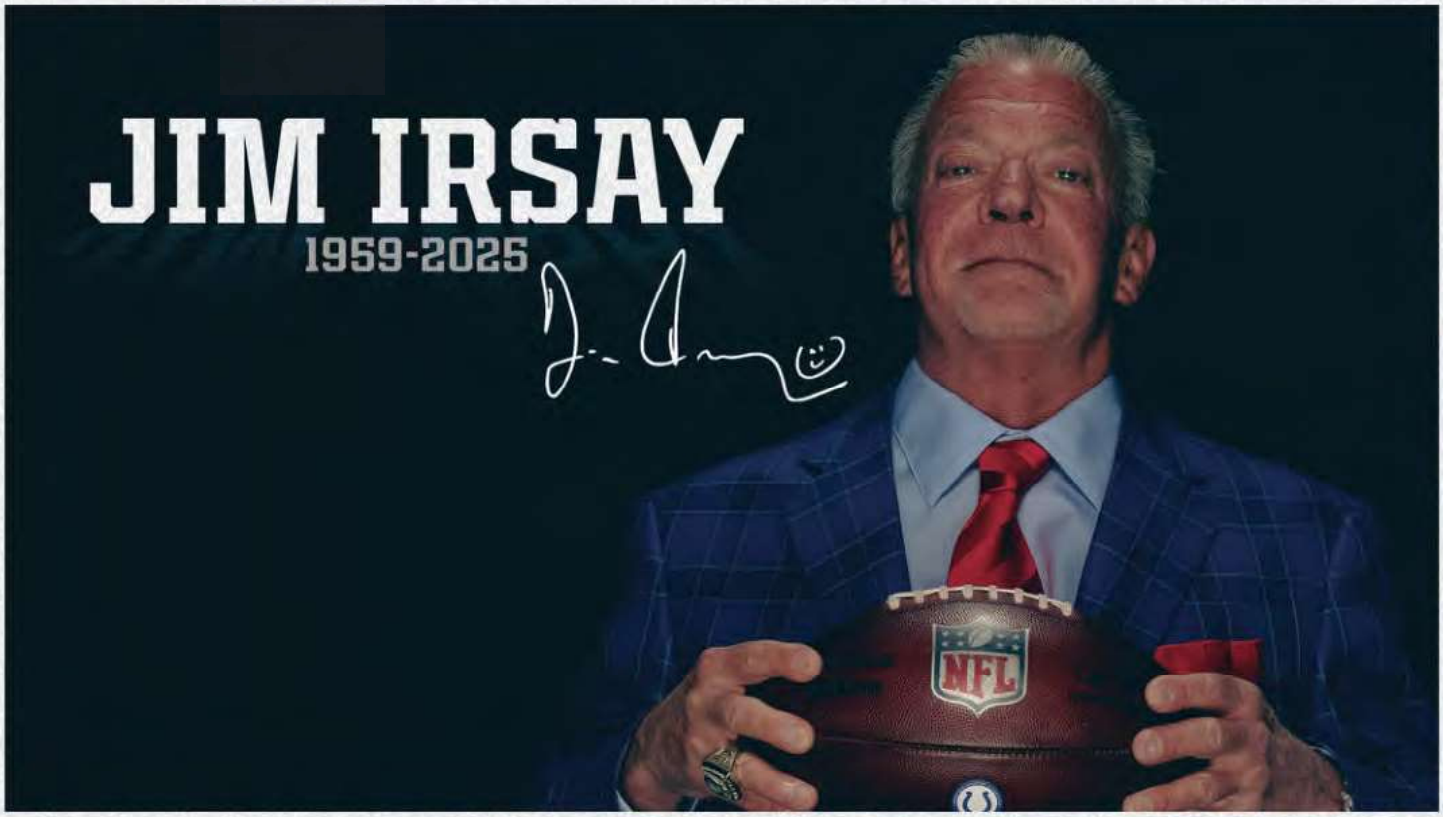
JIM IRSAY

1959-2025



James Stephen Irsay, devoted father, grandfather, business and community leader, philanthropist, and beloved Owner & CEO of the NFL's Indianapolis Colts, passed away peacefully in his sleep on May 21, 2025.

Jim was born on June 13, 1959, to Robert and Harriet Irsay in Lincolnwood, Ill., a suburb north of Chicago. He was raised in the Chicago area, but some of his fondest memories came from his youth working Colts training camps in Baltimore, Md., after his father, a successful Chicago businessman, acquired the Baltimore Colts in 1972. There, Jim started his historic 54-year affiliation with the Colts and began cultivating a lifetime of relationships with players, coaches, and staff whom he considered his extended family.

After graduating in 1982 from Southern Methodist University, where he played football and earned a degree in broadcast journalism, Jim joined the franchise and worked in virtually every department before being named the youngest general manager in NFL history when the Colts arrived in Indianapolis in 1984. In 1987, he helped lead the team to its first division title and playoff appearance during the Indianapolis era.

After he assumed sole ownership of the club in 1997, Jim oversaw a historic, record-breaking period of success on the field. From 2000 to 2009, the Colts earned 115 regular season wins, which at the time was the most in a decade for any NFL club. Indianapolis also set an NFL record with 23 consecutive wins from 2008 to 2009. That era produced six Pro Football Hall of Famers – Bill Polian, Tony Dungy, Peyton Manning, Marvin Harrison Sr., Edgerrin James, and Dwight Freeney – and counting.

This decade of success culminated in the city's first Super Bowl championship, a 29-17 victory over the Chicago Bears on a rainy Miami night in 2007. Following their triumphant return to Indianapolis, Jim and the team were welcomed by a raucous crowd lining downtown streets in below-freezing temperatures and filling the old RCA Dome. Jim responded by sending the Lombardi Trophy on a 50-stop, 3,130-mile tour throughout Indiana, giving fans an opportunity to see, touch and take pictures with the iconic trophy.

In 2012, Jim played a central role in one of Indianapolis' greatest moments when he helped bring Super Bowl XLVI to Lucas Oil Stadium. The game still is largely regarded as one of the most successful Super Bowls ever, as it generated hundreds of millions of dollars in economic impact, as well as worldwide exposure, for the city and state.

All told, Jim, as owner, led the Colts to 10 division titles, two AFC Championships, and the club's fourth world championship. From 2007 to 2012, the Colts played in two Super Bowls (XLI, XLIV) and hosted a Super Bowl in a span of just six years.

One of the NFL's longest-tenured owners, Jim's love and appreciation for the history, tradition, and principles of the league influenced him to become a steward of the game. In the 1980s, he was one of four NFL executives appointed to design the league's modern day salary cap, which still governs player earnings. As a team owner, Jim was highly active in league affairs, chairing the league's legislative efforts and serving on numerous other committees, including the working group that authored the NFL's collective bargaining agreement in 1993.

Outside football, Jim's generosity can be felt across Indianapolis, the state of Indiana, and the country. He made philanthropy a daily endeavor and never hesitated to help friends, fans, and neighbors live better lives. It was a common occurrence for him to read or hear about someone, be they a friend or stranger, who was suffering and anonymously lend a hand.

A pillar of his lasting legacy is the powerful influence Kicking The Stigma has had, is having, and will have on improving mental health awareness, research, and treatment in Indiana and across the United States.

Jim and his daughters launched Kicking The Stigma in late 2020 to address a deeply personal, little discussed, and critically important issue: mental health. Since then, the Irsay family has had a profound, positive impact on the mental health of Hoosiers and Americans, committing more than $31 million toward raising awareness and expanding treatment and research in Indiana and beyond.

In recent years, Jim also took the brave and monumental step of publicly sharing his own personal journey in hopes of ending the stigma surrounding mental health and inspiring others to seek help. While many hide challenges they have experienced, Jim declared himself "an open book" and sought to empower others by courageously sharing his own story.

Mental health was hardly the only avenue in which Jim drove the betterment of the community he called home. Jim and his family supported the Irsay Family YMCA, the downtown Colts Canal Playspace, Riley Hospital for Children, Indiana Black Expo, Girls, Inc., Big Brothers Big Sisters, Peyton Manning Children's Hospital, Gleaners Food Bank, Wheeler Mission Center for Women & Children, a new Indianapolis Animal Care Services shelter, Center for Leadership Development, Indiana University's Irsay Institute and Irsay Family Wellness Center, and countless other important community initiatives.

Family, football, and community were Jim's first loves, but his heart also belonged to music. He loved to play his guitars, write music and perform with his friends, whether in the basement or onstage the night before the Super Bowl. His love of music led him to assemble The Jim Irsay Collection, a robust collection of historic and culturally significant artifacts highlighted by items owned by some of the greatest artists in music history, including Bob Dylan, The Beatles, James Brown, Prince, Elton John, Eric Clapton, Jerry Garcia, Bo Diddley, Les Paul, Janis Joplin, Jim Morrison, Jimi Hendrix, Miles Davis, and other icons. In 2022, Guitar Magazine specifically cited his collection of guitars as "The Greatest Guitars on Earth."

Outside of music, the collection includes hundreds of precious artifacts, signed documents, and photographs from American history and pop culture. However, his most prized artifact was the original manuscript for Alcoholics Anonymous' Big Book, the organization's founding document which included the world's very first "12-Step" program. Jim loved this work and credited it with saving the lives of millions with substance use disorder, including his own.

An active philanthropist who wanted more than anything to share these historical items with the world, Jim transformed his collection into a "traveling museum" and hosted free exhibitions across the country. He also regularly loaned items to museums, nonprofits, and other organizations for display and research around the world.

Jim's love of music also led him to form The Jim Irsay Band, an all-star band featuring some of the greatest musicians in the world. He often traveled with the band to perform alongside exhibitions of the collection and was humbled to share the stage with such music giants as John Mellencamp, Stephen Stills, Buddy Guy, Ann Wilson, John Fogerty, Kenny Wayne Shepherd, Mike Mills, Kevin Cronin, Natalie Merchant, Billy F. Gibbons, Vince Gill, John Hiatt, Robert Randolph, Mike Wanchic, Billy Branch, Peter Wolf, and Kenny Aronoff. A crowning moment was Jim's band performing at Farm Aid 2023, where they played alongside music greats including Mellencamp, Willie Nelson, Neil Young, and Dave Matthews.

Jim made a monumental impact on the Colts, the city of Indianapolis, the NFL, and the country through his leadership, vision, and initiatives. But his greatest accomplishment in life was his family.

Jim married Margaret Coyle in 1980, and the couple was blessed with three wonderful daughters, Carlie (born 1981), Casey (born 1983) and Kalen (born 1987). All three daughters were immersed in all things Colts at an early age, but Jim insisted that each choose her own path in life, whether that included football or not. He was thrilled though that all three chose to stay involved with the team and train in all facets of the organization. As such, the daughters all were named Vice Chairs & Owners of the Colts in 2012, another point of personal pride for Jim.

Jim was even more thrilled to walk each of his daughters down the aisle for their weddings and watch them start their own families, which now includes 10 grandchildren. Jim loved his family more than anything in the world and could always be found showering them with love at every turn. To them, he wasn't just an NFL owner; he was "Dad" or "Grandpa," and he never let them forget how much he cared for each of them.

When not thinking about football or writing and playing music, Jim had many active hobbies, with one of his favorites being powerlifting. Over many years, he trained in Indianapolis and eventually lifted in competitions around the country. Jim also boxed, played golf, and was an avid runner, having competed in the 26.2-mile "Grandma's Marathon" in Duluth, Minn. in the early 1990s.

Jim's dedication and passion for the Colts in addition to his generosity, commitment to community, and most importantly, his love for his family, were unsurpassed. Simply put, he wanted to make the world a better place and never wavered in his principles. Jim will be deeply missed by his family, the Colts organization, and fans everywhere, but all will remain inspired by his caring and unique spirit.

He is survived by daughters Carlie Irsay-Gordon, Casey Foyt, and Kalen Jackson; grandchildren Charlotte Irsay-Gordon, AJ Foyt V, Dylan Irsay-Gordon, Lockey Foyt, Elliott Irsay-Gordon, Waylon Foyt, Mabel Jackson, Mills Foyt, Finley Jackson, and Dixie Foyt; and countless Colts and NFL fans across the country and around the world. He was preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Harriet, sister Roberta, and brother Thomas.

CARLIE IRSAY-GORDON

OWNER & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

NFL EXPERIENCE: 18 YEARS
COLLEGE: SKIDMORE COLLEGE

Carlie Irsay-Gordon is entering her first season as Colts Owner & CEO in 2025, following 13 seasons as Vice Chair/Owner.

Raised in and around the Colts, she worked as an intern in many of the club's departments while pursuing her undergraduate degree in religious studies from Skidmore College. Irsay-Gordon joined the team in 2008 while completing coursework towards a doctoral degree in clinical psychology. She has represented the Colts at NFL Owners' Meetings since 2004 and, along with her sisters Casey Foyt and Kalen Jackson, represents the third generation of Colts ownership in Indianapolis.

Irsay-Gordon is active in the administration of the NFL as a member of the league's Media Owned & Operated Committee, which oversees all NFL media properties and sets media strategies across the NFL; the 32 Equity Committee, the league's strategic capital fund; the Security & Fan Conduct Committee, as well as several inter-club groups that guide the NFL on wide-ranging initiatives, including business optimization and data governance.

With the Colts, Irsay-Gordon created and oversees the club's Tony Dungy Diversity Coaching Fellowship and Harriet P. Irsay Fellowship for Women in Football programs, which together afford diverse candidates and women the opportunity to gain valuable experience working in the Colts coaching or football operations departments. Irsay-Gordon also serves on the board of the NFL Player Care Foundation, which supports the well-being of retired players.

Locally, she serves as chair of the Park Tudor School board of trustees and on the board of the Lake Maxinkuckee Environmental Fund. She previously served on the board of Visit Indy and as co-chair of the Indy Championships Fund. Irsay-Gordon resides in Indianapolis with her husband, Zach Gordon, and three children.

KALEN JACKSON

OWNER & CHIEF BRAND OFFICER AND PRESIDENT OF THE INDIANAPOLIS COLTS FOUNDATION

NFL EXPERIENCE: 16 YEARS
COLLEGE: INDIANA UNIVERSITY

Kalen Jackson is entering her first season as Colts Owner & Chief Brand Officer in 2025, following 13 seasons as Vice Chair/Owner. She also serves as President of the Indianapolis Colts Foundation.

Jackson joined the team in 2010 and, along with sisters Carlie Irsay-Gordon and Casey Foyt, represents the third generation of Colts ownership in Indianapolis. Like her sisters, Jackson grew up with the Colts organization as a significant part of her life since birth. She oversees various functions of the organization, including coordinating the Irsay family's community and philanthropic efforts.

Jackson currently leads Kicking The Stigma, the family's initiative to raise awareness about mental health disorders and end the stigma often associated with these illnesses. Since launching in 2020, Kicking The Stigma has committed more than $31 million to nonprofits and organizations expanding treatment and research and raising awareness in Indiana and beyond. Jackson serves on the national board of Project Healthy Minds and locally on the board of the United Way of Central Indiana. She also is president of the Indianapolis Colts Women's Organization.

In addition to representing the Colts at NFL Owners' Meetings, Jackson chairs the league's Employee Benefits Committee, where she is responsible for administering club and league benefit plans, including plan design and amendment, benefit and administrative expense payments and employee eligibility issues.

She graduated with honors in 2010 from Indiana University's School of Health, Physical Education & Recreation with a bachelor's degree in sports management and marketing. Jackson was born and resides in Indianapolis with her husband, Boyd Jackson, and their two daughters.

CHRIS BALLARD GENERAL MANAGER

Chris Ballard was hired as the general manager of the Indianapolis Colts on January 29, 2017. He is entering his 25th NFL season and his ninth in his current role where he oversees all football operations.

In his first eight years at the helm, Ballard has constructed teams that have won 62 games collectively, which includes four winning seasons and two playoff appearances. In his tenure, nine Colts players have combined to earn 17 first or second-team All-Pro honors and 13 players have compiled 27 Pro Bowl selections.

During the 2025 offseason, Ballard made multiple moves to bolster the team heading into the season. It began in unrestricted free agency, when the team signed cornerback Charvarius Ward, safety Camryn Bynum and quarterback Daniel Jones at the start of the new league year. Ward earned Second Team All-Pro honors and Pro Bowl accolades following the 2023 season as a member of the 49ers. Ballard also acquired cornerback Corey Ballentine, defensive tackle Neville Gallimore, and running back Khalil Herbert. He brought back kicker Spencer Shrader, who spent time with the team as a rookie in 2024.

In the 2025 NFL Draft, Indianapolis made eight selections – most notably first round draft pick tight end Tyler Warren. Warren won the 2024 John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end and placed seventh in Heisman Trophy voting. He also finished his career ranked first among Penn State tight ends in receptions (153), receiving yards (1,839), receiving touchdowns (19) and 100-yard games (five). Ballard selected two more Big Ten products with his next two picks in Ohio State defensive end JT Tuimoloau (second round, 45th overall) and Minnesota cornerback Justin Walley (third round, 80th overall).

In 2024, Ballard constructed a team that finished with an 8-9 record with two Second Team All-Pro selections (linebacker Zaire Franklin and guard Quenton Nelson) and three Pro Bowl honorees (Franklin, Nelson and running back Jonathan Taylor). The Colts finished in the top 10 in rushing yards per game (137.1 – eighth) for the second consecutive season and also ranked eighth in the NFL in total rushing yards (2,331). Additionally, Indianapolis had three receivers total more than 800 receiving yards (Josh Downs, Alec Pierce and Michael Pittman Jr.). It marked the first time the Colts had three players eclipse 800 yards in a single season since 2004 (Marvin Harrison, Brandon Stokley and Reggie Wayne). Defensively, the Colts ranked tied for seventh in the NFL in takeaways (25) and tied for first in the league in red zone takeaways (six). Franklin led the NFL in tackles (173) while also adding 93 solo tackles, 11.0 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, six passes defensed and five forced fumbles.

In 2023, Ballard assembled a team that finished 9-8 on the season, while playing the majority of the games with their backup quarterback and unrestricted free agent pickup, Gardner Minshew II. Minshew II was named to his first career Pro Bowl after he appeared in all 17 games (13 starts) and compiled single-season career highs in attempts (490), completions (305) and passing yards (3,305). The Colts finished in the top 10 in the NFL in points per game (23.3 – tied-10th) and rushing yards per game (121.1 – 10th). Indianapolis had four players selected to the Pro Bowl, including Buckner, center Ryan Kelly, Nelson and Minshew II. Pittman Jr., a 2020 second round draft choice, had a career year, finishing with single-season career highs in receptions (109) and receiving yards (1,152) while also adding four touchdowns. He ranked fifth in the NFL in receptions and became the fourth Colts player all-time to have at least 100 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards in a season, joining Dallas Clark, Harrison and Wayne.

Defensively, Indianapolis ranked fifth in the NFL in tackles for loss (94.0) and sacks (51.0), while finishing tied for fifth in forced fumbles (17) in 2023. The Colts had four players record at least 8.0 sacks, including Buckner, defensive end Samson Ebukam, defensive end Dayo Odeyingbo and defensive end Kwity Paye. The Colts were the only team in the NFL to have four-such players accomplish that feat. The 51.0 sacks were the most by the team in the Indianapolis era (since 1984). Franklin registered 179 tackles (107 solo), 3.0 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, six passes defensed and two forced fumbles. He finished second in the league in total tackles and solo tackles. Franklin established the single-season franchise record for tackles in 2023 (179) while recording 166 in 2022.

In the 2023 NFL Draft, Ballard added 12 selections to the roster, including Florida quarterback Anthony Richardson with the No. 4 overall pick. The 12 total draft selections were the most by the Colts since the NFL went to a seven-round format in 1994. Richardson ranked as the No. 1 quarterback in the Relative Athletic Score system at the NFL Combine, which dates back to 1987. He started four games in his rookie campaign and completed 50-of-84 passes for 577 yards with three touchdowns and one interception for an 87.3 passer rating. Richardson also tallied 25 carries for 136 yards (5.4 avg.) and four touchdowns. He suffered a season-ending injury in Week 5 and was placed on the Injured Reserve list.

Following the 2022 season, Ballard and his staff embarked on an in-depth coaching search that ended with former Philadelphia Eagles Offensive Coordinator Shane Steichen. Steichen brought 13 seasons of coaching experience and helped lead the Eagles to an NFC Championship and Super Bowl appearance as their offensive coordinator.

In 2021, the Colts narrowly missed the postseason, but the team recorded top 10 finishes in points per game (26.5), rushing offense (149.4 yards per game) and defensive takeaways (33). Taylor, a 2020 second round draft choice, became the first Colts player to lead the NFL in rushing (1,811 yards) since Edgerrin James in 2000. Indianapolis tied for first in the NFL with five Associated Press All-Pro selections and led the league with seven players named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2020, Indianapolis made an AFC Wild Card appearance following an 11-5 regular season record. The 11 wins were the most for the team dating back to 2014.

During 2020's COVID-19 season, the Colts won six of their last eight games to clinch the final playoff spot in the AFC. Veteran quarterback Philip Rivers, who was signed by Ballard as a free agent in the offseason, completed 369-of-543 passes for 4,169 yards and 24 touchdowns. His completion percentage (68.0) ranked eighth in the NFL and was the second-best single-season mark in franchise history. Taylor ranked third in the NFL in rushing and became just the fifth rookie in franchise history to register a 1,000-yard season. Defensively, Buckner established a single-season franchise record for the most sacks by a defensive tackle (9.5) while linebacker Shaquille Leonard ranked eighth in the NFL in total tackles despite missing two games. On special teams, safety George Odum led the NFL with 20 special teams stops while kicker Rodrigo Blankenship set a new franchise rookie record for points scored (139), field goals made (32) and extra points made (43). In total, Ballard's nine NFL draft selections in 2020 combined to play in 85 contests with 36 starts.

Since his arrival in Indianapolis, Ballard has stressed the importance of winning the battle in the trenches. His theory held true in 2019 as the Colts finished with a top-10 rushing offense for the first time since 2001. Running back Marlon Mack became the team's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2016. That same year, Indianapolis' offensive line was the only unit in the NFL to start the same five linemen in all 16 regular season games while tying for the ninth-fewest sacks allowed. On the defensive side of the ball, Ballard signed free agent defensive end Justin Houston following eight seasons in Kansas City. Houston led the Colts with 11.0 sacks, which marked his fourth career double-digit sack season and his first since 2014. Houston also produced a streak of six consecutive games with a sack, the second-longest streak of his career. The team's 2019 draft class combined to play in 93 games.

In 2018, the Colts started the season with a 1-5 record, but won nine of their last 10 games to clinch a postseason berth. Indianapolis became the third team in NFL history to start the season with a 1-5 mark and reach the playoffs. The Colts then defeated the Houston Texans in a Wild Card contest and became the second team in league history to start 1-5 and win a playoff game. The team's success, due in part to Ballard's construction of the roster, earned him the Pro Football Writers of America Executive of the Year award.

Pivotal in the team's 2018 achievement was the 11-man NFL Draft class, which combined to play in 133 games (67 starts). The group was spearheaded by Nelson and Leonard who joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Dick Butkus and Gale Sayers (Chicago Bears, 1965) as the second pair of rookie teammates to be selected First Team All-Pro since The Associated Press started selecting All-Pro teams in 1940. Nelson was also selected to the Pro Bowl and Leonard was named the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year. The duo also earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors following the 2019 season. Ballard made a trade with the New York Jets in March of 2018 to acquire the sixth overall pick (Nelson), in addition to two second round selections and a second round pick in 2019. Starting right tackle Braden Smith was selected with the acquired 37th overall selection.

Ballard navigated the organization through a challenging 2017 campaign. Through myriad injuries, the Colts witnessed the emergence of several free agents and draft selections. The team's 53-man roster for the regular season opener featured 30 new players compared to 2016's Week 1 roster. Ballard focused primarily on the defensive side of the ball in his first draft as six of the eight players selected competed on defense. In total, seven of Ballard's picks reached the active roster and combined to play in 82 games (17 starts). One of Ballard's first roster moves in Indianapolis came in early March, when he signed tight end Jack Doyle to a contract extension. Doyle went on to have a career year as he finished with 80 receptions for 690 yards and four touchdowns en route to his first career Pro Bowl. His reception total finished as the second-most in the league among tight ends and ranked as the second-most in franchise single-season history among players at his position. Doyle again made the Pro Bowl following the 2019 campaign. Ballard made one of his best roster moves eight days prior to the regular season opener when he acquired quarterback Jacoby Brissett in a trade with the New England Patriots. Brissett started 15 games and threw for 3,098 yards and 13 touchdowns. He ranked second in the league in passing touchdowns of 60-plus yards and was part of an offense that tied for the fourth-fewest giveaways in the NFL in 2017.

Following his first year as general manager, Ballard was nominated for the Pro Football Writers of America Jack Horrigan Award, which is given to the league or club official for his or her qualities and professional style in helping the pro football writers do their job. He was nominated again following the 2018 campaign before winning the award following the 2019 season.

Ballard came to the Colts after a four-year stint with Kansas City, where he was the director of football operations from 2015-18. He was promoted to the position after serving two seasons (2013-14) as the Chiefs director of player personnel. Ballard oversaw the college and pro scouting departments and worked directly with then-General Manager John Dorsey on player acquisition.

From 2013-16, the Chiefs won 43 games (fourth-most in the NFL), made three playoff appearances, won one AFC West Division title (2016) and had 15 players named to the Pro Bowl, including at least four in each season. Inheriting a team that went 2-14 in 2012, Ballard assisted in an overhaul of Kansas City's roster in 2013. By the end of the season, there were a total of 30 new players on the 53-man squad that went 11-5 and reached the playoffs as a Wild Card contender after finishing second in the AFC West. Ballard helped the Chiefs draft four Pro Bowl players in addition to acquiring three-time Pro Bowl (2013, 2016-17) quarterback Alex Smith in free agency in 2013.

Prior to Kansas City, Ballard began his NFL career with the Chicago Bears. In 12 seasons with the Bears personnel department, under the tutelage of general manager Jerry Angelo, he served as the director of pro scouting (2012) and was the southwest area scout (2001-2011).

During Ballard's tenure in Chicago, the Bears reached the playoffs four times, won four NFC North titles (2001, 2005, 2006 and 2010) and appeared in two NFC Championship games (2006 and 2010). The Bears were victorious in the NFC Championship in 2006 and faced the Colts in Super Bowl XLI in Miami.

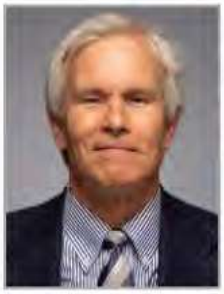
With the Bears, Ballard helped draft numerous Pro Bowl players, including running back Matt Forte (2008), wide receiver Johnny Knox (2009), cornerback Charles Tillman (2003), defensive tackle Tommie Harris (2004), cornerback Nathan Vasher (2004) and defensive tackle Henry Melton (2009). He also assisted in many notable acquisitions and trades, including the signings of wide receiver Brandon Marshall, guard Jermon Bushrod, tight end Martellus Bennett, linebacker D.J. Williams and linebacker James Anderson.

Before entering player personnel, Ballard spent seven seasons (1994-2000) on the coaching staff at Texas A&M-Kingsville under Head Coach and College Football Hall of Famer Ron Harms. In 2000, he served as defensive coordinator after stints as the secondary coach (1995-99) and wide receivers coach (1994). During his time with the Javelinas, Ballard helped mentor future NFL players running back Richard Jones, wide receiver Karl Williams, cornerback Floyd Young and cornerback Al Harris. Texas A&M-Kingsville also produced 1996 first-round draft pick, guard Jermane Mayberry.

Ballard played four years of collegiate football at the University of Wisconsin, part of which was under former head coach and Badgers Athletics Director Barry Alvarez. He served as a student assistant his senior year after suffering multiple knee injuries prior to graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1993.

Ballard is a native of Texas City, Texas. He and his wife, Kristin, have five children and reside in Westfield, Ind. The Ballard family is active in the community and have worked with many organizations, including Books for Youth, Hands of Hope, Habitat for Humanity, Make-A-Wish and Gleaners Food Bank. In addition, the Ballards also host the "Huddle For Hope" community ticket block at Colts home games.

ADMINISTRATION



PETE WARD
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Pete Ward is entering his 45th season with the Indianapolis Colts in 2025. He was promoted to chief operating officer in 2010 after serving as the club's senior executive vice president since 2001. Ward's duties and experiences have been wide-ranging and diverse and touch all areas of the organization. He began his affiliation with the Colts in 1981 as a summer and seasonal intern in the team's public relations department. Following Ward's graduation from the University of Virginia, he was hired as the club's administrative assistant. Ward was promoted to director of operations shortly after the team's arrival in Indianapolis in March 1984. He then was named vice president of administration in 1997. In addition to general administrative management, Ward served as the point person for the team on the design and construction of Lucas Oil Stadium. In 2012, he was named the development chair for the Indiana University Simon Comprehensive Cancer Center, a 42-person panel charged with raising money for one of the nation's leading cancer centers. In addition, Ward serves on the boards of USA Football, the Central Indiana Corporate Partnership, Indy Economic Development and the Indianapolis Zoo. He also served as the team's liaison with the City of Indianapolis as it hosted its first ever Super Bowl (XLVI). Ward and his wife, Lena, have a daughter, Mady, and a son, Sam. He was born in New Orleans and was raised in Carmel, Calif.

DAN EMERSON
CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER

Dan Emerson has represented the Colts since March 1984, when the club moved to Indianapolis. He enters his 10th season as the team's chief legal officer after being named to the position in 2016. Prior to that, Emerson served four years as vice president and general counsel and nine years as general counsel. For nearly 35 years, he practiced law with the Indianapolis firm Bose McKinney & Evans, where Emerson chaired the Employment Law and Sports & Entertainment Law groups and served on the firm's executive committee. After graduating from Macalester College, where he played football and baseball, Emerson attended law school at Indiana University in Bloomington. He is a member of the Sports Lawyers Association, as well as the Indianapolis, Indiana, American, Federal, and Seventh Circuit bar associations, and is a past Chairman of both the Indiana and Indianapolis Bar Associations' Labor & Employment Law sections. Emerson is listed in Best Lawyers in America and is a Distinguished Fellow of the Indianapolis Bar Foundation. He also is active in various community and nonprofit organizations and served as board chair of the Indiana Repertory Theatre. Born in Wichita Falls, Texas, Emerson resides near Indianapolis with his wife, Ginny. They have two daughters, Emily (married to Brian Ferris) and Ashley (married to Kevin Gilles), and six grandchildren, Riley Gilles, Caroline Gilles, Cameron Gilles, Reagan Ferris, Isla Ferris and Maxwell Ferris.

EJ TOLENTINO
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

EJ Tolentino is entering his fifth season with the Colts as chief financial officer. He joined the Colts with 20 years of experience providing audit, risk management, strategic planning and consulting services for private and public clients and organizations. Most recently, Tolentino was a principal with CliftonLarsonAllen, where he served as leader of the firm's financial services group, as well as the Colts' outside auditor for 14 years. He previously worked as a senior associate with KPMG. A Hoosier native, Tolentino is a graduate of the Indiana University Kelley School of Business and a licensed Certified Public Accountant. He and his wife, Mandi, have two children, Olivia and Drew.

ROGER VANDERSNICK
CHIEF COMMERCIAL OFFICER

Roger VanDerSnick enters his ninth season with the Colts, serving eight seasons as chief sales and marketing officer before being promoted to chief commercial officer in 2024. An Indiana native, he came to the Colts with more than 30 years of experience in the sales and marketing field. VanDerSnick previously was with global sports marketing agency International Management Group (IMG), where he was the chief sales and marketing officer of IMG College. In addition to driving significant sales growth, VanDerSnick developed and implemented IMG College's national sales platform, designed a regional sales management structure for 90 universities and implemented a CRM sales management system for the 325-plus person sales and marketing organization. Before IMG, he held a variety of roles, most recently as executive vice president and chief operating officer, with International Speedway Corporation, owner and operator of 12 speedways and 100-plus motorsports events every year. VanDerSnick previously was with NASCAR, last serving as vice president of marketing, where he participated in all strategic initiatives, sponsorship sales, marketing plans, media rights negotiations, licensing and new business initiatives. VanDerSnick began his career at Procter & Gamble and held a number of manufacturing roles before transitioning into marketing and running a number of businesses as brand manager. He graduated cum laude with a degree in mechanical engineering from Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology, where VanDerSnick also earned all-conference honors on the football team. A board member of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce and the 500 Festival, he has two daughters, Megan and Nicole, and resides in Indianapolis with his wife, Dawn.

SHANE STEICHEN HEAD COACH

Shane Steichen was hired as head coach of the Indianapolis Colts on February 14, 2023. He has 18 years of coaching experience, including the last 14 seasons in the NFL.

In 2024, Steichen led the team to an 8-9 finish. The Colts finished in the top 10 in rushing yards per game (137.1 – eighth) for the second consecutive season. The team also ranked eighth in the NFL in total rushing yards (2,331). Indianapolis had three players earn Pro Bowl accolades, including linebacker Zaire Franklin (first selection), guard Quenton Nelson (seventh selection) and running back Jonathan Taylor (second selection). Franklin and Nelson also earned Associated Press Second Team All-Pro honors. Offensively, Steichen worked with quarterback Anthony Richardson, who set single-season quarterback team records in rushing yards (499) and rushing touchdowns (six). Richardson also added 1,814 passing yards and eight touchdowns through the air. Taylor ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing yards after he registered 303 carries for 1,431 yards and 11 touchdowns. Additionally, Indianapolis had three receivers with over 800 receiving yards (Josh Downs, Alec Pierce and Michael Pittman Jr.). It marked the first time the Colts had three players eclipse 800 receiving yards in a single season since 2004 (Marvin Harrison, Brandon Stokley and Reggie Wayne). The Colts defense ranked tied for seventh in the NFL in takeaways (25) and tied for first in the league in red zone takeaways (six). Indianapolis also ranked 10th in the NFL in tackles for loss (88) and tied for third in forced fumbles (17). Franklin compiled a league-high 173 tackles (93 solo) and added 11.0 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, six passes defensed, two interceptions and five forced fumbles. He ranked tied for second in the NFL in forced fumbles and tied for third in solo tackles.

In his first year in Indianapolis, Steichen guided the team to a winning record, finishing the season 9-8. The Colts ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in points per game (23.3 – tied-10th) and rushing yards per game (121.1 – 10th). Indianapolis had four players selected to the Pro Bowl, including defensive tackle DeForest Buckner (third selection), center Ryan Kelly (fourth selection), quarterback Gardner Minshew II (first selection) and Nelson (sixth selection). Pittman Jr. tallied single-season career highs in receptions (109) and receiving yards (1,152) while also adding four touchdowns. He ranked fifth in the NFL in receptions and became one of four Colts players all-time to have at least 100 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards in a season (Dallas Clark, Harrison and Wayne). Steichen worked with Richardson, who started all four games he saw action in during his rookie season and completed 50-of-84 passes for 577 yards with three touchdowns and one interception for an 87.3 passer rating. He also added 25 carries for 136 yards and four touchdowns. After losing Richardson to a season-ending injury in Week 5, Minshew II took over the starting role. Minshew II completed 305-of-490 passes for a single-season career-high 3,305 yards with 15 touchdowns and nine interceptions for an 84.6 passer rating. He also registered 34 carries for 100 yards and three touchdowns.

Steichen also worked with a Colts defense that ranked fifth in the NFL in tackles for loss (94.0) and sacks (51.0), while finishing tied for fifth in forced fumbles (17.0) in 2023. Indianapolis also ranked fourth in opponent negative play yards (-512). The Colts had four players record at least 8.0 sacks in 2023, including Buckner, defensive end Samson Ebukam, defensive end Dayo Odeyingbo and defensive end Kwity Paye. They were the only team in the NFL to have four-such players last season. Indianapolis' 51.0 sacks were the most by the Colts in the Indianapolis era (since 1984).

Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles from 2021-22 and helped the team reach Super Bowl LVII in 2022.

During his two seasons as offensive coordinator, Steichen coordinated an offense that ranked first in the NFL in rushing yards per game (153.6), rushing yards (5,224) and rushing touchdowns (57) over that time frame. Philadelphia also ranked tied for first in fewest interceptions (19) and third in fourth down conversion percentage (58.92 percent). Additionally, the Eagles offense set new single-season franchise records in third down conversion percentage in back-to-back seasons.

In 2022, he guided a Philadelphia offense that finished in the top 10 in numerous categories, including yards per game (389.1 – third), points per game (28.1 – third), rushing yards per game (147.6 – fifth), passing yards per game (241.5 – ninth), fewest turnovers (19 – tied-fifth), first downs per game (22.6 – third), third down percentage (franchise-record 45.95 percent – fourth), fourth down percentage (68.75 percent – fourth), red zone percentage (67.80 percent – third), goal to go percentage (82.35 percent – fifth), points scored on their first offensive possession (62 – first) and plays of 10+ yards (253 – second). The Eagles were one of just two teams to finish in the top 10 in rushing yards per game and passing yards per game.

Steichen worked with quarterback Jalen Hurts, who set then single-season career highs in every passing category, including completions (306), passing yards (3,701), passing touchdowns (22), completion percentage (66.5) and passer rating (101.5). Hurts also had a team-high 13 rushing touchdowns. He finished fourth in the NFL in passer rating and 10th in passing yards.

Philadelphia was one of just two teams to have two 1,000-yard receivers (A.J. Brown and DeVonta Smith) as well as a 1,000-yard rusher (Miles Sanders). In his first season with Philadelphia, Brown tallied 88 receptions for a single-season career-high 1,496 receiving yards, while tying his single-season career high in receiving touchdowns (11). Smith also had a career year as he caught 95 passes for 1,196 yards and seven touchdowns (all single-season career highs). Brown (fourth) and Smith (ninth) each ranked in the top 10 in receiving yards and Brown tied for third in receiving touchdowns. Sanders finished fifth in the league in rushing after registering 259 carries for 1,269 yards (4.9 avg.) and 11 touchdowns (all single-season career highs).

The Eagles led the NFL with eight total Pro Bowl selections in 2022, which included six on offense in Brown, Landon Dickerson, Hurts, Lane Johnson, Jason Kelce and Sanders. Additionally, Johnson (First Team), Kelce (First Team), Brown (Second Team) and Hurts (Second Team) each earned Associated Press All-Pro honors.

In his first season in Philadelphia, Steichen orchestrated the NFL's most productive rushing offense, as the Eagles led the league with a franchise-record 2,715 rushing yards. Philadelphia ranked fourth in third down percentage (then-team-record 45.7 percent), eighth in red zone percentage (62.3 percent) and fifth in fewest turnovers (16).

In 2021, Steichen was instrumental in the development of Hurts, who completed 265-of-432 passes for 3,144 yards with 16 touchdowns and nine interceptions for an 87.2 passer rating in his first season as a starter. Hurts also registered 784 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns. He became just the eighth quarterback in NFL history to register 3,000 passing yards and 750 rushing yards in a season. Hurts also became the youngest Eagles quarterback to ever start in a playoff game.

Smith, whom the team selected with the 10th overall pick of the 2021 NFL Draft, registered 64 receptions for 916 yards and five touchdowns. He set the franchise rookie record in receiving yards. Tight end Dallas Goedert totaled 56 receptions for 830 yards and four touchdowns. Goedert's 830 receiving yards were a single-season career high and ranked fifth in the league among tight ends. Steichen also helped Kelce (First Team) and Johnson (Second Team) each earn Associated Press All-Pro recognition. Kelce was also selected to the Pro Bowl.

Prior to Philadelphia, Steichen spent seven seasons (2014-20) with the Los Angeles/San Diego Chargers where he served as offensive coordinator (2020), interim offensive coordinator (2019), quarterbacks coach (2016-19) and offensive quality control/wide receivers (2014-15). The Chargers offense finished in the top 10 in passing yards per game in each of his seven years on the offensive staff, including the league's best in 2017.

In Steichen's first full season as the Chargers' offensive coordinator, Los Angeles finished in the top 10 in yards per game (382.1 – ninth), passing yards per game (270.6 – sixth), first downs per game (23.3 – sixth), third down percentage (44.2 percent – ninth) and fewest turnovers (16 – tied-fourth).

In 2020, Steichen worked with quarterback Justin Herbert, whom the team selected with the sixth overall pick of the 2020 NFL Draft. The 2020 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year completed 396-of-595 passes for 4,336 yards with 31 touchdowns with 10 interceptions for a 98.3 passer rating. Herbert set NFL rookie records in completions and passing touchdowns, while registering the second-most passing yards by a rookie in league history (Andrew Luck – 4,374). He finished in the top 10 in the league in completions (fourth), passing yards (sixth) and passing touchdowns (10th). Additionally, wide receiver Keenan Allen caught 100 passes for 992 yards and eight touchdowns en route to Pro Bowl honors.

Steichen assumed the Chargers' offensive coordinator duties in an interim capacity for the final eight games of the 2019 season. During his tenure as play caller, the unit ranked fifth in the league in total yards per game (384.3), sixth in passing yards per game (272.1) and seventh in third down percentage (42.7 percent).

Prior to becoming offensive coordinator, Steichen was the Chargers' quarterbacks coach from 2016-19 and worked with former Colts quarterback Philip Rivers. Over those four seasons, Rivers ranked second in passing yards (17,824), fourth in completions (1,446) and fourth in touchdown passes (116). He was selected to three consecutive Pro Bowls from 2016-18.

As the league's top ranked passing offense in 2017 (276.9 yards per game), Rivers completed 360-of-575 passes for 4,515 yards with 28 touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a 96.0 passer rating. In 2016, Rivers registered the second-most passing touchdowns of his career (33) while completing 349-of-578 passes for 4,386 yards.

From 2014-15, Steichen served as an offensive quality control coach for the Chargers and worked primarily with the wide receivers. In 2015, Allen played in the first eight games of the season and caught 67 passes for 725 yards and four touchdowns before being placed on the team's season-ending Injured Reserve list. In 2014, San Diego had four players, including three wide receivers (Allen, Eddie Royal and Malcom Floyd), reach 50+ receptions for just the fourth time in team history.

In 2013, Steichen assisted the quarterbacks as an offensive quality control coach with the Cleveland Browns. Despite multiple injuries at the position, the Browns had three starting quarterbacks (Jason Campbell, Brian Hoyer and Brandon Weeden) each post 300-yard passing performances for the first time in franchise history (sixth instance in NFL history).

Steichen began his NFL career as a defensive assistant with the Chargers (2011-12) after spending one season as a full-time offensive assistant at Louisville (2010). He also served as an offensive graduate assistant (2008-09) and student graduate assistant (2007) at his alma mater, UNLV.

As a four-year letterman (2003-06) at quarterback for the Rebels, Steichen left as the school's 12th all-time leading passer with 2,755 yards and 22 touchdowns. He also registered 399 rushing yards and five touchdowns.

A native of Sacramento, Calif., Steichen earned his degree in journalism and media studies from UNLV. He attended Oak Ridge High School in El Dorado Hills, Calif., and earned area MVP honors from the Sacramento Bee after leading his squad to a conference sectional title in 2002.

Steichen and his wife, Nina, have a son, Hudson, and a daughter, Stella. Steichen's older brother, Sean, was a punter at Boise State.

SIGNS OF A PROBLEM GAMBLER:

Spends a lot of time gambling – may miss work, school, family obligations, or other important events.

Hides gambling losses – frequently talks about the wins but keeps losses and information about family finances to themselves.

Gambles to escape – uses gambling to escape from pressures at home or work; also a person may gamble out of loneliness or grief.

Suffers severe mood swings – a person's state of mind depends on whether or not gambling, the person may become anxious or angry.

Bets increase in size – bets higher amounts in the hope of breaking even or winning back losses.

Tries to stop gambling, but can't – a compulsive gambler may try to stop gambling, but in most cases is unable to quit without help.

QUARTERBACKS

The Colts will determine their Week 1 starting quarterback with a training camp competition between 2023 No. 4 overall pick Anthony Richardson Sr. and veteran free agent Daniel Jones. Richardson Sr. enters his third year in the NFL having started 15 games, and in those he's completed 50.6 percent of his passes for 2,391 yards with 11 touchdowns, 13 interceptions and a passer rating of 67.8. He has also made an impact on the ground with 11 carries for 635 yards and 10 rushing touchdowns. While Richardson Sr. has missed 17 games due to injury in his career, the Colts do own an 8-7 record in games he's started. Jones signed with Indianapolis in March after six years with the New York Giants, as well as a brief stint with the Minnesota Vikings to end the 2024 season. The 2019 No. 6 overall pick appeared in 70 games (69 starts) for the Giants and completed 64.1 percent of his passes for 14,582 yards with 70 touchdowns, 47 interceptions and a passer rating of 84.3; he also added 15 rushing touchdowns. Jones led the Giants to a playoff appearance in 2022 and powered New York's Wild Card round victory over the Vikings with 24 completions on 35 attempts (68.6 percent) for 301 yards with two touchdowns and a passer rating of 114.1. The Colts, additionally, drafted Notre Dame quarterback Riley Leonard in the sixth round (189th overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft, and return the versatile Jason Bean from 2024's practice squad.

RUNNING BACKS

Jonathan Taylor earned his second career Pro Bowl appearance in 2024 with a magnificent workhorse season. The fifth-year running back carried the ball 303 times for 1,431 yards (4.7 avg.) with 12 total touchdowns over 14 games, and he averaged over 100 yards per game for the second time in his career. Taylor finished the season with four consecutive 100-yard games, including a remarkable 218 yards and three touchdowns on 29 carries in a Week 16 win over the Tennessee Titans. The Colts refreshed their depth chart behind Taylor this offseason, beginning with adding veteran free agent Khalil Herbert, who averaged 4.8 yards per attempt over 56 games with the Chicago Bears (2021-24) and Cincinnati Bengals (2024). In the 2025 NFL Draft, Indianapolis selected Kansas State's DJ Giddens in the fifth round (151st overall); Giddens racked up 3,087 rushing yards and 27 total touchdowns during his three collegiate seasons. The Colts return third-year former undrafted free agent Tyler Goodson (240 career rushing yards on 45 carries with one touchdown), 2024 practice squad running back Salvon Ahmed and added undrafted free agent Ulysses Bentley IV this offseason as well.

WIDE RECEIVERS

All six wide receivers who caught at least one pass for the Colts in 2024 will return in 2025, as will wide receivers coach Reggie Wayne. Josh Downs led Indianapolis with 72 receptions last year, while Alec Pierce topped the team with 824 yards and seven touchdowns and Michael Pittman Jr. totaled the most targets with 111. Downs, despite missing three games, set new career highs in receptions, receiving yards (803) and touchdowns (five), while Pierce led the NFL with an average of 22.3 yards per reception. Pittman Jr. battled through a back injury throughout the season but still managed to make an impact with 69 receptions for 808 yards and three touchdowns, including a game-winning score against the Titans in Week 6. 2024 second-round pick Adonai Mitchell caught 23 passes for 312 yards as a rookie, while 2024 fifth-round pick Anthony Gould caught one pass and was primarily used as a returner on special teams. Longtime special teams ace and versatile reserve Ashton Dulin will return for his seventh season with the Colts, and while he only had two receptions in 2024, one of them was a 54-yard touchdown in Week 1 against the Houston Texans. 2024 practice squad members D.J. Montgomery and Laquon Treadwell will compete in training camp with Ajou Ajou and 2025 undrafted wide receivers, Tyler Kahmann, Coleman Owen, Landon Parker and Blayne Taylor.

TIGHT ENDS

For the first time since taking Dallas Clark in the 2003 NFL Draft, the Colts used a first-round pick on a tight end, selecting Penn State's Tyler Warren with the No. 14 overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. In his final year at Penn State, Warren won the Mackey Award (given annually to college football's top tight end) and led the FBS with 104 receptions. He totaled 1,233 yards and had 13 total touchdowns (eight receiving, four rushing, one passing) as well. With Indianapolis, Warren will join a tight end room that returns veteran Mo Alie-Cox, a thumping blocker who hasn't missed a game since 2020. The Colts also return 2022 sixth-round pick Drew Ogletree (18 receptions, 256 yards, three touchdowns in his career) and 2023 fifth-round pick Will Mallory (22 receptions, 236 yards in his career), as well as 2022 third-round pick Jelani Woods, who has missed the last two seasons due to injuries. 2024 practice squad members Sean McKeon and Albert Okwuegbunam Jr. will compete in training camp along with undrafted free agent Maximilian Mang, who's a native of Potsdam, Germany.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The Colts' offensive line will once again be anchored by seven-time Pro Bowl left guard Quenton Nelson, who last year became only the 20th player in NFL history to earn a Pro Bowl nod in each of his first seven seasons. He also earned Second Team AP All-Pro honors. For the first time in a decade, Indianapolis will enter a season without Ryan Kelly as their starting center. Kelly, along with former starting right guard Will Fries, signed with the Vikings as free agents in March. 2024 fourth-round pick Tanor Bortolini will compete with veteran Danny Pinter to start at center, while 2024 third-round pick Matt Goncalves will look to earn the Colts' starting right guard role during training camp. Indianapolis returns both stalwart tackles in Bernhard Raimann on the left side and Braden Smith on the right side; both Raimann (10th) and Smith (19th) ranked among Pro Football Focus' 20 highest-graded tackles from 2022-24. Rookie Jalen Travis, a 2025 fourth-round pick (127th overall) from Iowa State, will look to provide depth alongside experienced players including center Wesley French (three career starts), guard Josh Sills (18 career games), guard Dalton Tucker (seven career starts) and tackle Blake Freeland (nine career starts). The Colts also have depth with third-year tackle Luke Tenuta, 2024 practice squad tackle Jack Wilson and two 2025 undrafted free agents in center Mose Vavao and tackle Marshall Foerner.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Indianapolis' dominant interior duo of DeForest Buckner and Grover Stewart returns for the sixth consecutive season. While Buckner missed five games due to injury in 2024 – the first games he missed due to injury since his 2016 rookie season – he still totaled 6.5 sacks and 61 tackles in 12 games. Stewart, a 2017 fourth-round pick one of the longest-tenured members of the Colts, set career highs in 2024 with 74 tackles and 10.0 tackles for loss. At defensive end, Indianapolis will get 2023 sack leader Samson Ebukam (9.5 sacks that season) back from a season-ending Achilles' injury sustained early in training camp last summer, while veteran Kwity Paye (26.5 sacks, 31.0 tackles for loss) returns for his fifth season with the Colts. 2024 first-round pick Laiatu Latu will look to build on some encouraging moments from his debut season (72.1 PFF pass rush grade) at defensive end. Indianapolis added to its defensive front on Day 2 of the 2025 NFL Draft with Ohio State defensive end JT Tuimoloau, who led FBS with 12.5 sacks and helped the Buckeyes win a national championship in 2024. At defensive end, the versatile Tyquan Lewis is back for his eighth season with the Colts to compete with 2023 waiver claim Isaiah Land and 2024 practice squad member Durell Nchami. Behind Buckner and Stewart, Indianapolis signed veteran free agent Neville Gallimore in March and selected Alabama's Tim Smith in the sixth round (190th overall), both of whom will compete with 2023 fourth-round pick Adetomiwa Adebawore and 2022 fifth-round pick Eric Johnson II, who the Colts waived last year but claimed on waivers from New England this offseason. Additionally, Indianapolis signed undrafted free agent defensive tackle Devonta Davis and undrafted free agent defensive end Desmond Little.

LINEBACKERS

Veteran Zaire Franklin returns to the middle of the Colts' defense for his eighth season with the team, and is coming off another productive year in 2024. Last year, Franklin led the NFL with 173 tackles and set career highs in sacks (3.5), interceptions (two) and forced fumbles (five). He earned his first career Pro Bowl nod as well as Second Team AP All-Pro honors. Next to Franklin, Indianapolis will look to replace E.J. Speed (who signed with the Texans as a free agent), with 2024 fifth-round pick Jaylon Carlies competing with several players there. The Colts return Cameron McGrone and Segun Olubi for their third seasons with the club, while practice squad linebackers Austin Ajiake and Liam Anderson are back as well. This offseason, Indianapolis signed veterans Joe Bachie and Jacob Phillips and added undrafted free agent Solomon DeShields.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Colts made two major additions to their defensive backfield in free agency this March, signing veteran cornerback Charvarius Ward and safety Camryn Bynum. The 28-year-old Ward previously played for the Kansas City Chiefs (2018-21) and San Francisco 49ers (2022-24), where he earned extensive postseason experience. Ward started 15 of the 17 playoff games – including three Super Bowls – in which he appeared with the Chiefs and 49ers, tied with Richard Sherman for the second-most postseason starts among cornerbacks in the last 25 years. In 2023, Ward led the NFL with 23 passes defensed, earning him a Pro Bowl nod and Second Team AP All-Pro honors. Bynum spent the last four seasons with the Vikings and brings a high football IQ and playmaking knack to Lou Anarumo's defense. From 2021-24, Bynum started 54 games – he didn't miss a game from 2022-24 – and totaled eight interceptions, 28 passes defensed and 342 tackles. Ward and Bynum join an Indianapolis secondary that returns nine-year veteran Kenny Moore II, who's widely regarded as one of the NFL's top slot cornerbacks, as well as recent draft picks-turned starters in cornerback Jaylon Jones (2023 seventh-round pick, 27 career starts) and safety Nick Cross (2022 third-round pick, 21 career starts). 2023 second-round cornerback JuJu Brents will look to make an impact after injuries sidelined him for 23 games over his first two years in the NFL, while 2024 waiver wire pickup Samuel Womack III will compete at cornerback as well. The Colts selected Minnesota's Justin Walley in the third round (80th overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft and will look to the versatile cornerback to compete for playing time during training camp. Indianapolis brought back cornerback David Long Jr. and signed free agent Corey Ballentine. 2024 practice squad member Alex Johnson returns as well. At safety, 2022 seventh-round pick Rodney Thomas II is back, as is 2023 fifth-round pick Daniel Scott, who's missed the last two seasons due to injuries. The Colts also drafted Wisconsin's Hunter Wohler in the seventh round (232nd overall). This spring, Indianapolis also signed undrafted free agents safeties Ladarius Tennison and Trey Washington, as well as undrafted free agent cornerback Johnathan Edwards.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Indianapolis' battery of punter Rigoberto Sanchez and long snapper Luke Rhodes returns in 2025 for their ninth season together. Rhodes, who made his debut in 2016, is the longest-tenured member of the Colts. Sanchez, meanwhile, set a career high with 49.7 yards per punt in 2024. At kicker, Indianapolis will have a competition between 2024 undrafted free agent Spencer Shrader and 2025 undrafted free agent Maddux Trujillo. Shrader connected on three PATs in Week 1 of the 2024 season but did not kick again for the Colts; he was signed off Indianapolis' practice squad by the New York Jets and then quickly was brought aboard by the Kansas City Chiefs. Shrader was not phased, though, and made all five of his field goals – including a game-winner for the Chiefs – between those two stops. The Colts signed Shrader as a free agent this spring. Trujillo kicked collegiately at Temple (2024) and Austin Peay (2021-23), and the 64-yard field goal he connected on last season is tied for the eighth-longest in NCAA history.

ABOUT GRIDIRON GREATS

The Gridiron Greats Assistance Fund (GGAF) is a non-stock non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, providing financial grants and pro bono medical assistance to retired NFL players in dire need. The organization focuses on the humanitarian side of post-football related issues: social services to retired players who are in need due to a variety of reasons such as, inadequate disability and/or pensions.

We provide hands-on assistance to help retired players and their families deal with the hardships they face after football.

SERVICES INCLUDE:

- Medical assistance
- Transportation costs for medical evaluations and surgeries
- Housing assistance
- Financial assistance for utilities
- Medication
- Pro bono surgeries
- Coordination of services for food
- Automotive payments
- Childcare

MERGING® VETS & PLAYERS

MVP empowers military, veterans, and professional athletes to thrive when the uniform comes off through fitness, health, and wellness programs.

NEW TEAM + NEW MISSION

VETERANS ★ PROFESSIONAL ATHLETES

By merging vets and athletes, we create an environment where these warriors can share each other's strength and experience, build a stronger foundation for more fulfilling lives, and positively influence their new team, families and communities.

WHO WE ARE

MVP is a community that empowers and connects our members through various events, communication, and trusted resources. Our members are provided with an ecosystem of support so they are never alone!

WHAT WE DO

We reduce homelessness, suicide, improve health and wellness, and much more! Veterans and Athletes come together weekly for a formal physical training and peer to peer support session called, "The Huddle," at no cost to them! This allows them to rebuild themselves mentally, physically, emotionally.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

EMPOWERING COMMUNITIES RESTORING HOPE

About the Trust Downs Foundation

Founded by former NFL running back Gary Downs and his sons—Josh and Caleb Downs—the Trust Downs Foundation is a faith-based nonprofit working to combat homelessness in Indianapolis, Atlanta, and Columbus. Rooted in Christian values and a deep sense of family, the Foundation supports frontline organizations through funding, resources, and advocacy.

It also invests in youth through a scholarship fund that helps students overcome financial and personal challenges. United by faith and purpose, the Downs family is dedicated to creating lasting, community-driven impact.

Our Focus Areas

Supporting Homelessness-Focused Organizations
We partner with local and national nonprofits that directly serve unhoused individuals— offering financial support, resources, and increased awareness. Our mission is to help restore dignity, stability, and opportunity to those affected by homelessness.

Expanding Access to Affordable Housing
We champion innovative housing initiatives and community-based development projects that promote safe, sustainable, and affordable living. Because everyone deserves a place to call home.

Empowering Students Through the Trust Downs Scholarship Fund
We believe education is one of the most powerful tools for breaking cycles of hardship. Our scholarship program provides financial assistance to deserving students, enabling access to higher education, vocational training, and certification programs that pave the way for a brighter future.

As a Veteran, when someone raises their hand for help, you're often one of the first ones to respond. But it's also okay to get help for yourself. Maybe you want or need assistance with employment, stress, finances, mental health or finding the right resources. No matter what it is, you earned it. And there's no better time than right now to ask for it. Don't wait. Reach out.

COLTS IN THE COMMUNITY

COLTS COMMUNITY PHILOSOPHY

The Indianapolis Colts are committed to inspiring and uniting people in our home city and state by building a healthy, inclusive and compassionate community through meaningful outreach, projects and partnerships.

Each year, the Colts – including players, coaches, cheerleaders, front office staff and others – partner with a whole host of stakeholders across Indianapolis and Indiana to address important community needs and improve the lives of our fellow Hoosiers.

PILLARS OF GIVING

• HEALTH & WELLNESS
As a sports team, health and wellness are vital to our success. Likewise, we support community efforts that encourage healthy lifestyles and provide resources that help people care for their bodies and minds. We also support all types of youth athletics, including growing youth and flag football by removing barriers to accessibility and participation.

• YOUTH & FAMILY EMPOWERMENT
Youth and families are the building blocks of every community. As such, we strive to help strengthen and empower young people and families so they can foster positive change in their lives and communities.

• NEIGHBORHOOD & COMMUNITY IMPROVEMENT
Everyone lives in a neighborhood or a community they call their own. We aim to help neighborhoods and communities, and the people who live in them, to be as safe, healthy and engaged as they can be.

• NFL INITIATIVES
The Colts continue to support NFL initiatives, including Play Football, Hispanic Heritage, Crucial Catch, Salute to Service, Inspire Change and NFL Green through volunteerism and philanthropy of ownership, players and club personnel.

COMMUNITY IMPACT

As role models on the field and in the community, the Colts seize every opportunity to influence and inspire the next generation of athletes, scholars, philanthropists and game changers.

Tuesdays are the players' day off during the regular season. From hospital visits to playground builds, Community Tuesdays offer a standing appointment to give back. In 2024, more than 65 Colts players participated in over 25 total events as they made a lasting impact on the Indianapolis community.

*Breaking Barrier*s is the Colts social justice initiative to support organizations and efforts that battle systemic racism and reduce barriers to opportunity with a focus on racial equity, economic and educational mobility, community/police relations, voter education and criminal justice reform. We have a responsibility on and off-the-field – to come together and use our platform to level the playing field for others. We believe we must foster dialogue and take action to inspire positive change throughout our city, state and country. It takes all of us.

The club took several steps to advance the cause in 2024, working with local organizations to promote social justice while recognizing those who are making significant impact in our community, like the 2024 Colts Changemaker, Tiffany Hamilton of the Indy Steelers. Most notably, the Players Action Fund for Equality awarded a $20,000 grant to Peace Learning Center for its Restorative Justice Initiative, which aims to stop the "school to prison pipeline."

COLTS FOOTBALL DEVELOPMENT

Each season, the Colts run several programs and initiatives that support and highlight Indiana youth and high school football. Centered around the four pillars of Colts Football Development – health and safety, participation and inclusion, education and development and outreach – these programs aim to give all football programs, both flag and tackle, the opportunity to maximize their experience.

The Colts remain committed to supporting and growing all game types of football, including a key focus on the growth of youth and high school flag football opportunities throughout Indiana.

In July 2024, the Colts launched their Colts Flag Football Leagues, an exclusive network of NFL FLAG leagues, in an effort to grow the game by helping connect young athletes to flag football programs. There are currently 10 locations in Indiana and Kentucky that are part of the Colts Flag Football Leagues.

On the high school level, the Colts have prioritized flag football development to introduce the game to a new generation of athletes and fans, particularly girls who traditionally have not had the same opportunities to play the game as boys. Through the 'Road to 100' campaign, $10,000 support packages are offered by the Colts and the Irsay Family to high schools that commit to participate in girls flag football. To learn more about Colts flag football, visit Colts.com/flag.

KICKING THE STIGMA

Kicking The Stigma started with a promise – a commitment from the late Jim Irsay and his family to tackle the mental health crisis here in Indiana.

As owners of the Indianapolis Colts, the Irsays have seen firsthand how many Hoosiers suffer in silence. They've received countless messages from fans in need, including many with limited access to treatment and no idea where to start. For the Irsays, this only confirmed what they already knew: mental health is a matter of life and death for millions.

Since 2020, Kicking The Stigma has worked to raise awareness around mental health and combat the feelings of shame associated with mental illness. We created a space for athletes to advocate for vulnerability and launched a grant program to support nonprofits across the country. But most importantly, we've inspired hundreds of Hoosiers to speak up, share their story and seek treatment for their mental health.

Across the globe, more than 615 million people are currently living with a mental health condition. In fact, one in five adults in the United States will experience a mental illness this year, and Indiana is no exception. Over a million Hoosiers have been diagnosed with a mental health condition, with even more reporting symptoms of anxiety and depression.

This is the reality we live in. But despite these alarming statistics, there remains a huge gap in mental health care, leading to 60% of people never getting the treatment they need.

That's why Kicking The Stigma works to remove barriers to access and help every Hoosier find care in their community. Together, we have committed over $31 million to mental health research and awareness — and set an example of what it means to stand against stigma.

Our vision: To be an example, convener and catalyst for strategic change in the mental health space by using the power of the Indianapolis Colts platform to improve the lives of Hoosiers and beyond.

BLUE: THE OFFICIAL MASCOT OF THE INDIANAPOLIS COLTS

Blue, the official mascot of the Indianapolis Colts, is now in his 20th season providing game day entertainment, skits and sideline antics for Colts fans. When he's not at Lucas Oil Stadium, Blue is busy posting entertaining content on his social channels across TikTok, Instagram, X and Facebook. He is a four-time Mascot of the Year selection and a four-time Social Media of the Year award winner, which is voted on by the league's mascots. On June 14, 2020, Blue was inducted into the Mascot Hall of Fame along with three other mascots. In 2025, Blue was awarded Mascot of the Year, Social Media of the Year, Skit of the Year and Collaboration of the Year by the league's mascots. You can request Blue for your next event and find information about school shows, his book and more by calling 317-808-5264 or by visiting: Colts.com/blue.

2025 COLTS CHEERLEADERS

Colts Cheer will be celebrating its 42nd season in Indianapolis in 2025. The squad, which debuted in Baltimore in 1954, is the longest running tenured cheer program in the NFL. The Colts Cheerleaders launched The Next Chapter initiative in 2018, and through a renewed focus on highlighting the athleticism, talent and character of our athlete-performers, The Next Chapter includes a professional development program, expanded community service experiences, a new uniform and an expanded Junior Cheer program. This approach is designed to elevate the Colts Cheerleaders as one of the top cheer and dance squads in the NFL by redefining what it means to be a cheerleader and an athlete-performer.

In addition to performing for more than 63,000 fans in Lucas Oil Stadium at every home game, the cheerleaders serve the community in numerous ways. In 2024, squad members logged more than 1,000 hours at community and other appearances, and in 2018 they launched the NFL's first Community Impact Challenge led by a professional cheerleading team. The squad also has traveled to military bases around the world. Squad members have traveled to Alaska, Australia, Cuba, Diego Garcia, El Salvador, Honduras, Germany, Greenland, Japan and Korea entertaining our service men and women.

The Colts Cheerleaders also commit themselves to being positive role models. The Junior and Preschool Colts Cheer programs currently consist of more than 550 kids ages 3-14. The Junior Cheerleaders are instructed on basic fundamentals of dance and discuss confidence, responsibility, positive self-esteem and teamwork. They also have the opportunity to perform at various charitable events and on select game days at Lucas Oil Stadium. In addition to the Junior Cheer Program, the Colts Cheerleaders have had the amazing opportunity to work with Down Syndrome Indiana, serving the down syndrome and special needs community through dance.

The Colts Cheerleading program offers cheerleaders the opportunity to network with friends while continuing their passion for dance and performing. In addition, the program offers the chance to serve in numerous capacities across the state, travel outside of the country and grow in their personal lives. The Colts Cheerleaders aim to entertain, inspire and unite our fans, our community and the next generation of cheerleaders.
